

KANSAS HOUSING

2025 CSBG Discretionary Round 2 Program Awards

| Awardee                | Contact Person  | Award Amount | Project Summary   |
|------------------------|---|--------------|---|
| The Building Community | Beth Ann Falstad, Ph.D., Executive Directorbeth@the-building-community.org | $20,000     | To build a system to identify, engage, and connect Wilson County residents experiencing homelessness to essential services and support.   |
| SENT, Inc.             | Johnathan Sublet, Executive DirectorJohnathan@sentrtopeka.com                    | $31,021.35  | To launch innovative workforce development and career readiness programming within a suite of wraparound services and case management to help low-income families reach self-sufficiency. |
| SEK-CAP                | Jamey M. Whitney, Chief Executive Officerjwhitney@sek-cap.com                         | $15,170.05  | To launch an innovative service integrating public transit and non-emergency medical transportation to improve health access and create sustainability for Southeast Kansas communities.  |